Contribution of Dr. M.N. Joshi To Sanskrit Literature

After my graduation Arts and Science College, Jamakhandi, I joined the post-Graduate Department of Sanskrit Karnatak University, Dharwad, for M.A. in 1978. I Secured II Rank with 69% in M.A. Exam. With Alamkara and Kalidasa as my special subjects.

After my M.A. degree I was awarded a U.G.C. scholarship as a Research Fellow, and worked under Dr. B.R. Modak the then Prof. and Chairman, Dept. of Samskrit, Karnatak University for Ph.D. degree on the subject "Manasollasa of Somevvara-III". The work contains numerous topics on which research can be conducted. I choose the topic "The Treatment of Secular Arts and Sciences in Somevvara's Manasollasa." This was found to be interesting in view of its modern application, In my thesis, I have also made a comparative study on the most enchanting topics like Painting, Music, Gardening, Environmental awareness, Ayurveda, Sports, Diplomacy, Ministry and other similar subjects contained in Manasollasa. In addition to the topic of my Ph.D. thesis, I have been continuing my studies on many other interesting topics like Indian Education, Politics, Engineering, Commerce, Law etc. which are also dealt with in Manasollasa and I intend to write research articles and books on some of these topics. In addition to my research work, I had the course of the study for the degree Alamkara Vidwan and had it in the year 2002.

With a view of helping Sanskrit students of High school and Colleges, I have written two books on Grammar i.e., "Sarala Samskrita Vyakarana"-in Kannada and "Prabha Samskrit Grammar and Alamkara"- in English. In addition to grammar, "Ayurveda" is another field in which I have tried to contribute to Sanskrit Literature. "The principles of Ayurveda-A collection" is the book written by me in which I have collected the Ayurveda Subhavitā, Pancatantra, excerpts from Vedic literature and relevant verses of Manasollasa on Ayurveda. Another book viz., "New Sanskrit Grammar and Composition" (is co-authored with Dr.V.B.Joshi). And also I wrote "An Introduction to Ayurveda Padārtha Vijnāna". These works cater to the needs of students of Ayurveda. I have given the original Sanskrit text and its translation and notes in English in these works. This arrangement enables the students to prepare well for the examinations. My another book "Rgveda Parichaya" (in Kannada) discusses twelve important Hymns selected from the Rgveda. It explains the modern aspects. I have also written a few books in Kannada on research Methodology and on Political Science in collaboration with Sri G.N. Joshi. I have published these works only for academic purpose.

My new book Jeevanamaulayagalu in Kannada (Aug 2004) has covered the subjects from Vedic literature to Manasollasa. This work critically discusses the salient features of Veda, Upaniṣad, Ramayana, Mahabharata, Mahakavya, Darshanas, Prahelikas etc. This work also includes notes and explanation. I have tried my best to deal with the human relations and human values of olden days and its relevances with a critical approach. This book is the outcome of my detailed study of various original Sanskrit texts to illustrate the values of life in the ancient period and their relevance in the present day circumstances.

I have attended many Conferences, Seminars, Workshops and two Refresher Courses and two Up-gradation (Orientation) programmes. These have helped me considerably to enrich my knowledge. In addition to this, I have delivered more than 140 lectures in different institutions on different occasions on topics like (1) The importance of Bhagavadgita (2) Vedic Literature, (3) Kalidasa, (4) Education in Sanskrit Literature (5) Importance of Adult-Education, (6) Human values etc... I have delivered a lecture on "Kalidasa" in Academic Staff College, Karnatak University, Dharwad (Dec.2000). I have also delivered many talks on various subjects from All India Radio, Dharwad.

I worked as the Chairman of the Department of Studies in Sanskrit, Karnatak University for two terms i.e., from 1999-2001 and 2002 - 2004.

I have been awarded the prestigious international Ramakrsna Award 2000, of Saraswati Vikas, Canada. I have been honoured with the award "Sahitya Vivarada", by S.N. Seva Trust, Sri Dattakshetra, Audumbar (Sangli-Maharashtra) on 9th Feb. 2001, Jatyatita Sahitya Ratna' Award (2004) by Ex-prime Minister H. D. Devegouda, Jatyatita foundation Trust, Bangalore and "Vijaya Shree Award" by Indian International Friendship Society, New Delhi 110024 (Sept. 2005). Sanatana Snskriti Samvahana Vichaksana, - Puraskara." from Shree Jnaneswari Peetha Daivajna Bramahana math, Shee kshetra, KARKI.Tq. Honnavar (12, May 2012.)

In the Department, I have conducted National Seminars on (1) "Ecological Awareness in the Agamas" for three days (7th – 9th Sept. 2000 under HRD Minisry) (2) "VeeraVaivism in the Vaivagamas" (5th – 7th Sept. 2001) (3) "The concept of Beauty According to Indian poets and Aestheticians" (29th –31st Oct 2002). (4) "The concept of Rasa According to Indian poets and Aestheticians" (18th-20th Sept. 2003 under UGC/SAP/DSA/Phase II programme). (5) "Ancient Hindu Law and Administration as Reflected in Vedic and Smrti Literature" (22nd -24th Sept. 2005 under UGC/SAP/DSA/Phase III programme). (6) National Seminar on "Ancient Hindu Law and Administration in the Puranic and Classical Sanskrit Literature."

2nd to 4th Nov 2009..under UGC/DSA/SAP/Phase-III programme.

All these were sponsored by the University Grants Commission, Delhi. More than fifty to sixty scholars participated in each seminars and contributed their research papers. I have been working editor in chief in the proceedings of the Research papers presented in the above said seminars. I have also conducted Two days workshop on "Research Methodology in Sanskrit" (12th and 13th Jan. 2001) sponsored by the Karnatak University, Dharwad. More than thirty Research scholars and twenty P.G. students attended the workshop.

At present, I am working as Profssor and Chairman in the Department – Senior Professor, Guide to 26 (twenty six) research scholars. Sixteen of my students are already awarded with Ph.D. Degree under my guidance and Two of my research students have already submitted their thesis and Three M. Phil. Students are awarded.
