Karnataka State, India.

About Karnatak University:

Karnatak University, Dharwad is the second oldest university in the state of Karnataka, established in the year 1949. The university is spread over 888 acres of land and the campus is known as Pavate Nagar, named after Wrangler Dr. D. C. Pavate, who was an educational administrator and former Vice-Chancellor of Karnatak University. The university is presently accredited with the 'A' Grade status by the NAAC in 2014 and awarded University with Potential for Excellence by MHRD, Govt. of India.

About the Department:

The Department of Mathematics was established in the year 1958. Since then the department is serving as a place of learning and research imparting higher education in Mathematics. The Department offers M.Sc., M.Phil. and Ph. D programmes in Mathematics. Presently active research is being carried out in the areas of Complex Analysis, Topology, Graph Theory, Combinatorics, Differential Geometry, Computational Fluid Dynamics, Wavelet Analysis, Differential Equations, Numerical Analysis, Fractional Calculus etc. Presently the Department is supported by the UGC-SAP-DRS-III Programme. Department is also supported by NBHM Library Grants.

About Dharwad:

The history of Hubli-Dharwad, the twin cities dates back to the period of Hoysala. The city is also popular for its contributions towards Indian culture, especially to classical music and literature, and prominent educational organizations. The very presence of reputed institutions such as Indian Institute of Technology (IITDh), University of Agriculture Sciences (UAS), Karnataka Institute of Medical Sciences, Karnataka State Law University, IIIT, KLE Technological University etc.

Dharwad city is very well connected by Road, Rail and Air. It is situated on the National Highway NH-4, between Pune and Bengaluru cities. The university is very near from Dharwad Railway Station and Dharwad Bus Stand. It is about 20 kilometers from the Hubli Airport.
