

Profile of Pushpa Hongal

Pushpa Hongal is a Assistant Professor at Kousali Institute of Management Studies, Karnatak University, Dharwad.

She is qualified Education professional with 1 year of experience in corporate in Banking Sector and 6.9 years of experience in MBA College in teaching marketing, accounting, and finance principles, to students. She has also conducted several workshops for students and management teachers.

She did her post graduation from Karnatak University in Masters in Business Administration and Secured First Rank for the university and Secured five gold medals from KUD. She has done her graduation also from Karnatak University and secured Third Rank for the university. She has cleared UGC-NET (2010) at the first attempt. Presently she is perusing her PhD in Management.

She has worked with KUD affiliated MBA institute for 6.5 years and she was heading Student Development Programs and Management Development Programs. She has conducted and organised several programs, workshops and seminars for the benefit of students, academicians and industrialist. She has guided around 85 post graduate students for projects.

She has attended several Faculty development programs. She has presented 10 papers in National and International Conferences. Published 08 articles in National and International Journals.